), and E. M. Peck

being drawn next they were declared entitled to their office for two yrs. and the remaining three R. Manville, Esq, E. E. Hendrick and E. Francis being the last drawn were to remain in office one yr.

The Board then proceeded to appoint the annual Committee necessary for carrying on the work of the Association.

E. Francis & O. D. Shephard were appointed a Committee on printing. Also to procure whatever account books &c were necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the Association.

Messrs. O. D. Shephard and E. M. Peck were constituted a Committee to obtain and prepare rooms, at a cost not to exceed (It is proper here to remark that the present well-adapted library-room had been previously offered free of cost to the Association by R. Manville Esq, and that the fact tended, with the others before mentioned, to smooth the way for the establishment of the library.)

Messrs Peck, Shephard and Condit were appointed a Standing Committee for the year, to select and purchase books.

The appointment of a librarian next came up for consideration; and after a free interchange of views as to qualifications &c, it was decided to postpone the consideration ^{of the matter} till the next meeting.

There being no further business adjourned to meet on Wednesday afternoon March 18th

E. Francis.

Secretary.
